

Mental Health Awareness Week 2018 prize events Terms and Conditions:

1. The Mental Health Awareness Week (MHAW) prize events (including the photo challenge competition, workplace challenge and colouring competition) are open to residents of New Zealand. For more specific age restrictions for each event, please refer to the rules of each event on the www.mhaw.nz website.
2. Entrants into these prize events, will be deemed to have accepted these Terms and Conditions.
3. Winners will be chosen by the Mental Health Foundation (MHF) staff members in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. Specific requirements for each prize event are stated on each prize webpage. All decisions are final.
4. If you have questions about how to enter any of these events, please see the event details listed on the website pages, or email mhaw@mentalhealth.org.nz with "MHAW prize events" in the subject line.
5. Employees of the MHF or anyone else connected with the prize events are not eligible to win a prize.
6. By submitting your personal information, you agree to receive emails from the MHF containing offers, events, and information that we think may interest you. You will have the opportunity to unsubscribe every email we send. The Mental Health Foundation will not disclose any of your personal information, except for the following reasons:
 - For statistical purposes
 - When it is required by law
 - To protect the rights of the Mental Health Foundation
7. Closing dates for each prize event are stated on each prize webpage. Entries received outside of these time periods will not be considered.
8. The prize winners will be contacted by MHF staff members and winners will receive their prize after each event has finished.
9. Each prize is non-exchangeable, non-transferable and is not redeemable for cash or other prizes.
10. The winners may be required for promotional activity.
11. If prize winners do not provide MHF staff with shipping details before 16th November 2018, they will no longer be eligible to receive their prize.
12. The MHF will take care of any personal information that you supply as described in our privacy policy here. By entering the MHAW 2018 prize events you agree to the collection, retention, usage, and distribution of your personal information in order to process and contact you about your entry, and for the purpose outlined above. If you work at a District Health Board or an entity associated with a District Health Board and enter the Workplace Challenge, details of your entry information will be shared with TAS to profile wellbeing activities on the wellbeingforhealth website, unless you notify us at the time of entering that you do not wish the MHF to do so.
13. The MHF accepts no responsibility for entries that are lost, delayed, misdirected, incomplete, cannot be delivered or entered, or for any technical or other reason. Proof of delivery in any of the events is not proof of acceptance by the MHF.
14. The MHF accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, liabilities, injury or disappointment incurred by you as a result of entering the Mental Health Awareness Week events or accepting of a prize. The MHF further disclaims liability for any injury or damage to your or any other person's technical devices (ex. a number of devices including computer and phones) relating to or resulting from participation in any of the Mental Health Awareness Week events or merchandise.
15. The MHF shall have the right at any time to change or discontinue any aspect or feature of the MHAW 2018 prize events.
16. The MHF cannot be held liable, or legally accountable, for any picture or image or information posted by you to participate in any of the MHAW 2018 events, that is found to be in breach of the Privacy Act or Copyright law. You must have copyright and or permission to use any picture or image or information you post. You must inform the MHF as soon as possible if you are issued with such a challenge.
